JONES THE QUEER

WAS SELF-APPOINTED
GUARDIAN OF TROUSERS.

Negligee Panic in the Penland Lodging House Resulted in a Peculiar Find, and Lodging of Jones in Jail—Jones "Found a Baby Hanging From a Nail on the Wall"—Will Be Examined to Determine His Sanity.

Six irate men, attired in bath robes, Japanese screens, blankets and quilts, stalked into the office at the Penland lodging house this morning and demanded of the startled proprietor that he find their trousers. The half dozen pairs of "pants" were located on a chair in a room occupied by R. B. Jones, a plumber. Jones was sitting by an open window and quietly informed the delegation in negligee that as they didn't have sense enough to take care of their own things he had appointed himself guardian. Jones is now in the city jail, and Dr. W. G. Cole, county physician, will examine him this afternoon regarding his sanity.

Jones is said to be a hard drinker and has been before the recorder's court several times. A few nights ago he rushed out of his room at the Penland lodging house and declared that he had just taken a baby from a nail on the wall. "I awoke," he said, "and saw the child hanging on the wall and asked it what it was doing there. The kid replied that it was cold, and I unhooked it and sent it out to get warm. Looks like folks would take better care of their children."

WESTERN UNION CLOCKS.

Seven Regulation Clocks Now in Use in the City.

Charles Lawrence, assistant clock foreman of the Western Union Telegraph company, has recently repaired and overhauled the clock system of that company in Pendleton, until the entire system is now as good as new. The seven clocks in the city were thoroughly repaired and the clock circuit lines were rebuilt. The system is quite popular and will be extended this winter.

There are now seven Western Union clocks in the city at the following places: Commercial National Bank, Tallman's drug store, Louis Hunter, Red Front saloon, Baker & Garrison, A. G. Howard's cigar store, and F. X. Schemp's lodging house. These clocks are self-winding, and are regulated by the main Western Union clock in the offices here, every day. A small rental is charged for the use of the clocks and the company keeps them in repair and furnishes the correct time.

Busiest Piece of Railroad.

The Spokane branch line from Pendleton to Spokane, is said by all railroad men to be the busiest piece of road in the west, for the conductor. While the train on this branch is composed of but five cars, including the mail and baggage, yet, owing to the many stations, and the frequent stops, the number of passengers handled in a day is very great. It is said that the daily number of passengers handled by conductors on the Spokane run averages over 500. When the number handled by main line runs amounts to but 250, ordinarily, the excessive business of the branch may be imagined.

George vs. George.

W. H. George was yesterday granted a divorce from Alice I. George on the grounds of jealousy, constant nagging and harassment. The couple were married in Walla Walla several months ago, but married life soon became burdensome and the husband applied for a divorce a few weeks ago.

Will Use Moorhouse Picture.

The Year Book of Willamette University will use one of Major Lee Moorhouse's Indian photographs, in its 1905 number. The book is an artistic publication and is widely circulated.

WHY MOTHERS WORRY

Did you ever hear a mother worry over a plump child? There is no better bank of health for a child to draw from than a good supply of healthy flesh.

Scott's Emulsion not only gives a child weight and plumpness, but it feeds the brain, bones and nerves with strength and active power.

Fewer mothers would worry if they knew more about Scott's Emulsion.

MULLEN-CURLEY.

Both Boxers Are Working Out at Eagles' Hall.

Jack Curley, who is to meet Barney Mullen at the Fraser Wednesday night in a 10-round go, arrived in Pendleton last night from Walla Walla. Curley is a husky man, and looks to be several pounds heavier than Mullen. He is taller, but hardly as stockily built as the welterweight.

Curley and Mullen are both working out at Eagles' hall. Both are in good condition for the coming bout, and an interesting 10 rounds is looked for. Mullen's measurements are: Height, 5 feet 7 1/2 inches; weight, 140 pounds; reach, 75 inches; neck, 16 1/2 inches; chest, normal, 36 inches; expanded, 38 inches; biceps, 12 inches; right calf, 15 1/2 inches; waist, 22 inches.

EXHIBITS COMING WEST.

O. R. & N. Will Handle 700 Carloads of Exhibits and Pictures From the St. Louis Fair.

The O. R. & N. company has received notice from the Harriman headquarters that 700 carloads of exhibits and fixtures from the St. Louis fair are now starting westward and must be given the quickest possible dispatch over the lines.

This enormous amount of freight consists of every imaginable commodity that pertains to a world's fair, from government exhibits to fakir's outfits. The O. R. & N. is ready to give the shipments every attention, and the forerunner of the rush is expected to arrive at any time.

This rush of 700 cars means 21 heavy trains of 32 cars each.

"Fat" Turner in Willamette.

The Corvallis Times in speaking of the visit of "Fat" Turner to relatives at that place, and the record duck shooting being done by his party, says: "Four hundred and eighty-seven ducks shot by five hunters across the Willamette from Corvallis, last Tuesday, is the record for the season. The shooters were the Hurlbert brothers, whose performances in duck shooting in other seasons is well known. The fifth man with the party on Tuesday was 'Fat' Turner, of Pendleton, a cousin, who came down to join the party on the hunt. About half the number of ducks bagged were magnificent mallards, and most of the day's shoot was sold in Portland."

Messengers in Uniform.

The Western Union messenger boys blossomed out today in pretty new uniforms. The boys all bought these of their own accord, sending back to Cincinnati, O., for them. They are very pretty, being dark blue and trimmed in gold braid in a tasteful manner. The lads look pretty swell in their new finery—Walla Walla Statesman.
